Online

- Catholic Answers: A huge online resource with a vast library of forums, videos, and articles all dedicated to the subject of apologetics.
- Word on Fire: A ministry of Bishop Robert Barron, this site provides excellent apologetics through blogs, podcasts, and various other media. Oftentimes engaging with current events and our modern culture.
- FORMED:, a ministry of the Augustine Institute in Denver, CO. This site provides a wide variety of resources: books, small group resources, Bible studies, and video content for all ages. Parishes subscribe to the service and provide an access code for parishioners to access online at their own convenience. www.formed.org
- St Paul Center www.stpaulcenter.org This is an organization founded by Scott Hahn. They offer video bible studies, audio bible and faith studies, books on the bible and the Catholic faith, speaking events and other material. There is much to offer here.

- The Coming Home Network www.chnetwork.org This website is run by a group whose focus is for those converting to the Catholic faith, especially to deal with the large number of ministers who have been coming into the faith and need assistance in the transition. They offer many videos of conversion stories from men and women of many denominations from the EWTN program The Journey Home, conversion articles, resources for RCIA, books, CDs, and videos from past programs which give good background about aspects of the Protestant faiths. There is a lot of information, especially on issues of RCIA and conversion.
- Ignatius Press www.ignatius.com This website offers a large selection of Catholic books, audio books and movies. They also offer a lot of information on religious education including textbooks.
